WORKING GIRLS TO BE SEEN IN A PAGEANT

Six Hundred of Them to Give "Romance of Work" To-Morrow Night.

Final rehearsals were held yesterday of a pageant call "The Romance of Work," to be given to-morrow night in the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory by 600 working girls connected with the New York Association of Women Workers.

The pageant has been arranged by Miss Mary Porter Beegle, director of physical education in Barnard College. It will be one of the features of the convention of the National League of Wemen Workers, which begins in this city to-day.

Delegates will attend from eighteen States, representing 15,000 employees of offices, factories and shops. Mrs.
Henry Ollesheimer is President and Miss Jean Hamilton Secretary. The convention will be held in the Metropolitan Building.

CITY HONORS DE LOWRY.

Pittsburgh Business Halts for Funeral of Vera Cruz Hero.

PITTSHURGH, May 14.- Francis Patrick De Lowry, seaman of the U. S. S. New Hampshire, killed during the fighting at Vera Cruz, was to-day given all the honor that Pittsburgh had to give. Business was suspended by proclama-Mayor Armstrong until 11 tion of Mayor Armstrong until 11 o'clock, church belis tolled, and uncovered thousands lined the streets as the funeral cortege, escorted by the Second Brigade, N. G. P., commanded by Brig.-Gen. A. J. Logan, passed from St. Paul's Roman Catholic Cathedral, where requiem high mass had been cetchrated, to St. Mary's Cometery, where the burial occurred.

Schools were closed, the Stock Exchange ceased business and even the courts paused during the funeral services.

The Story of Doubtful Tom

"Hello Bill! How's every little thing?"

Tom Wilson dropped into a seat Bill Blake's table and lit a cigarette.

"Fine, Tom," said Bill. "What's on to-night?" "Oh, nothing: Let's see a show,

"No, I've got a date that will make any show merely 'watchful waiting.' And you fit into this, Victor party up at Ethel's. Oh, yes you will, too! Come on! If I don't make good both of us

Tom Wilson led Ethel to a cozy corner in the "den." They had just finished "hesitating" to "The Queen of the Movies" music as played four consecutive times on the Victrola at Tom's urgent

"You hate this Victrols, don't you. Tom?" laughed Ethel. "You remember that you boys kicked because we couldn't dance here. So I just took my little $5.00 to O'Neill-Adams and picked out a $50 instrument. I didn't have to even make an initial payment, because I bought records with the $5.00. Pretty soft for little Ethel, week?" asked the inquisitive Tom.

'One dollar! and we have had $10 worth of fun this evening, and the night is still young!"

the night is still young!"
"Honestly, Tom," said Ethel confidentially. "Since I have found what a perfect snap it is to get a Victrola at O'Neill's, I don't see why every one in town doesn't own one, especially when every one is dancing!
"You may not believe it, but I could have secured a peach of a little Victrola—the $15 one—by merely paying $1.00! And 50 cents a week on the balance. They allow you to either make these small initial payments—$1 or $5 or $10, depending on the size of the instrument—or if you like, you can select Victor records for those amounts or more, and then you are not asked to make any initial payment at all! And the weekly or monthly terms are small—even on the big $200 Victrola they are only $10 a month.

"It was heaps of fun, too, have the demonstrator blay over ing the demonstrator play over all of the new dance music and songs. An hour in that beautiful O'Neill Victor Salon will put you right up to date on all the new "Say, Ethel," said Tom, with a twinkle in his eye, "Your tip is good. Will you meet me to-morrow noon and pilot me to O'Neill's Victor section? I want a Victrola,

"Surest thing you know, Tom!"
eried Ethel. And they shook hands.
